material during lecture. Therefore I recommend skimming the textbook before each lecture on the relevant material and again when you are doing the assigned problems from the book. Learning mathematics requires allowing yourself enough time to understand the concepts and most importantly by practicing a lot!

GRADING

Your grade in this course will depend upon your performance in exams and how well you do your homeworks and class assignments. There will be 3 midterms and 10 problem sets. In-class assignments will not be announced ahead of time but the lowest in-class assignment grades will be dropped.

The lowest of the midterm grades will be dropped; so if you miss a test or perform very badly on one that grade will simply be dropped.

The grade breakdown is as follows:

Midterm 1	20%	!	Best Two Midterms	40%
Midterm 2	20%		Homework	25%
Midterm 3	20%		Class Participation	5%
			Final Exam	30%
			Total	100%

Some important things regarding the grading and exams:
- ¥ There are no make-up exams.
    - o If you miss one, that will be the grade that is dropped.
    - o If you miss more than one exam you will get a 0% score for at least one of the midterms you missed.
- ¥ Homework assignments can only be handed in in class. If you can't come find a

OTHER INFORMATION

Disability Policy:
If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit a letter from Disability Services to me in a timely manner so that your needs may be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities. Contact: 303-492- 8671, Willard 322, and http://www.Colorado.EDU/disabilityservices.

Religious Observance Policy:
Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to reasonably and fairly deal with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments, or required attendance. If you have a conflict, please contact me at the beginning of the semester so we can make proper arrangements.

Classroom Behavior Policy:
Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Students who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Faculty have the professional responsibility to treat all students with understanding, dignity and respect, to guide classroom discussion and to set reasonable limits on the manner in which they and their students express opinions. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records.

Honor Code:
All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to the academic integrity policy of this institution. Violations of this policy may include: cheating, plagiarism, aid of academic dishonesty, fabrication, lying, bribery, and threatening behavior. All incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council (honor@colorado.edu; 303-725-2273). Students who are found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy will be subject to both academic sanctions from the faculty member and non-academic sanctions (including but not limited to university probation, suspension, or expulsion). See http://www.colorado.edu/policies/honor.html http://www.colorado.edu/academics/honorcode.

Discrimin ation & Harassment Policy:
The University of Colorado at Boulder policy on Discrimination and Harassment

(http://www.colorado.edu/policies/discrimination.html, the University of Colorado policy on Sexual Harassment and the University of Colorado policy on Amorous Relationships applies to all students, staff and faculty. Any student, staff or faculty member who believes s/he has been the subject of discrimination or harassment based upon race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status should contact the Office of Discrimination and Harassment (ODH) at 303-492-2127 or the Office of Judicial Affairs at 303-492-5550. Information about the ODH and the campus resources available to assist individuals regarding discrimination or harassment can be obtained at http://www.colorado.edu/odh.
