for the last exam or exams scheduled on that day. To qualify for rescheduling, you must provide proof that you have three or more exams on that day. Arrangements must be made with me no later than the end of the 6th week of the semester.

Laptop Policy:

Although I may be using technology to present the class to you, the best way to take notes in math class is good old paper and pencil. In accordance with this Open laptops will not be allowed in class at any time. It is my experience that the temptations of the Internet are too great for the average student to resist and such activities are highly distracting to other students around you. I will enforce this strictly.

Religious Observance Policy

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to reasonably and fairly deal with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments, or required attendance. If you have a conflict, please contact me at the beginning of the term so we can make proper arrangements.

Classroom Behavior Policy

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Students who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Faculty has the professional responsibility to treat all students with understanding, dignity and respect, to guide classroom discussion and to set reasonable limits on the manner in which they and their students express opinions.

Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records.
