Please Note: I generally do not encourage the use of lap tops in class. If you have a documented need for them, please do see me so that we can make sure that your use of the lap tops does not interfere with others. The evidence shows that these are used for things that have nothing to do with class and they distract others. The same goes for the use of cell phones and texting. There is a zero tolerance for their use.

Email: Please email me at: akacem@colorado.edu if you need to reach me. Generally speaking, it is much easier to come to my office and or right after or before class if times allows. Avoid messages such as “I missed class, what did I miss”. If you do miss, make sure and get the notes from another student. When sending an email message, please do include a subject such as our class, question etc... Messages without anything on the subject line will not be answered. We get too much spam so please help by simply adding something on the subject line.

Required Books:

Michael P. Todaro and Stephen C. Smith Economic Development, Tenth Edition, 2009, Addison Wesley

William Easterly. The Elusive Quest for Growth. MIT Press, 2001, paperback edition.

Glossary: posted on CULearn. Please consult and review these. They will be assigned for one or more of the exams. You will be notified prior to each exam as to how much to study.

Optional:

William Easterly. The White's Man Burden, Why the West's efforts to aid the rest have done so much ill and so little good, Penguin Books, 2006.

Back to basics series: posted on CULearn under learning modules.

Purpose of the Course:

The purpose of the course is to acquaint the student with the major issues in development economics and policies. By the end of the course the student should be acquainted with most of the major issues in economic development policy and what both developing countries and international institutions are doing to confront the major constraints facing poor countries.

Schedule of Readings and Topics:

Tentative schedule. The class meets once a week for two and half hours. The outline below is tentative and may change somewhat depending on the pace of the class and case studies shown. The material covered in class may be more than what your outline shows and additional readings will be assigned during the semester.

Attendance and general exam policy: Attendance is required. You are given all of the exam dates in advance so do plan ahead. There are no make up for missed exams. No exception. (travel plans, etc.. will not do). If you have a documented medical excuse for the specific day of the exam, then we will consider it. Attendance means being there for the whole class period.
